Many couples think Destination Weddings are too expensive and luxurious for their budgets. However in reality they are less expensive than a traditional wedding, especially if Custom Travel is planning it for you! Thinking about a Destination Wedding?

Here are many reasons why this a great option:

- Planning a wedding can be very stressful, but our experienced Travel Consultants make it nearly stress free. We use our expertise and firsthand experience to help you find the perfect destination for your wedding.
- Custom Travel can help you find the best prices on exclusive wedding group rates at the resort of your choice. Custom Travel has developed relationships with numerous resorts and tour operators to obtain the best pricing available.

- Allows for more creativity with venues, cuisine, activities, decorations, and attire.
- Custom Travel is with you and your guests every step of the way. Think of us as a travel concierge service for your guests from the beginning to end of their trip. We answer all their travel questions and concerns so you can concentrate on planning the wedding.
- You can combine your Wedding, Honeymoon, and Family Reunion all in one big trip, with memories to last a lifetime.
